Interested in SCDM?

SCDM is a private outfitter, specializing in bowhunting in sensitive-environments, bowhunter training, deer management and archery equipment sales. Members of SCDM receive access to over 200+ private hunting properties, private events and discounted equipment.

Our Headquarters is located in Westhampton, New York right at the mouth of the twin forks of Long Island. SCDM members have an 18'x8' refrigeration cooler to store their deer and a private archery range. SCDM HQ is our home base, providing storage of our tree stands and equipment, as well as, a location to hold various training modules and education.

SCDM's deer management program runs from March 1st to January 31st of every year. All of our members must pass a criminal background check and be responsible and ethical bowhunters. The cost of membership is $600 annually, with new members paying a $50 fee toward their criminal background check. If you or someone you know would be interested in joining SCDM, please go online to the below address and download and complete our membership application.
